

Definitions :

1: the process of chemical change caused by the action of yeast or bacteria, often changing sugar to alcohol (biology, chemistry).

fermentation

Used in a sentence:

1: The process of fermentation enabled the scientist to see how the sugar was broken down to create a useful medication.

2: Yeast fermentation causes dough to rise, resulting in the production of bread, cakes, and pastries.

3: Bacterial fermentation is used to create products such as yogurt, cheese, and sour cream.

Etymology and historical meaning of the term fermentation.

The word "fermentation" comes from the Latin "fermentum," meaning "leaven" or "yeast."

Collocations: care, college, education

Questions:

- How does this link with the theme of the week: change and adapt
- Can you think of any synonyms for the word fermentation?
- Could you use words of the same family (verbs, nouns) in sentences?